OVERVIEW

A hospital in Arkansas with 47 beds is out-of-network with Aetna. Their billing team noticed the reimbursements were low, but did not know the extent of the problem. After partnering with Wakefield's Post-Payment Recovery service, this hospital was able to recover $1.41M in two years.

HOW WE HELPED

Over the course of two years, we successfully appealed 206 claims for additional payments. Out of the $3.05M in billed charges, initial payments only totaled $698k.

After we conducted a review and implemented our Post-Payment Recovery Service plan, an additional $1.41M was recovered.

That means the increase in initial payments went up by 201 percent!
